A MAN WANTED.

By Rev. J. T. Newson.

The crying need of the times is not overflowing granaries, vineyards, thronged harbors, rich fleets, a bigger standing army, or war; but a good man and great whose example and influence repeat greatness in all the people. What is a man? Not a masculine biped, nor a physical giant, nor an intellectual giant or person of worldly honor, but an individual of character combining these and additional moral and spiritual culture, an individual of principle and convictions.

Mr. Lamr said "put this on the shaft that marks my resting place," "Here lies a man." I had rather be a man than an angel I want to be first a man and then a preacher, doctor, lawyer, journalist or farmer.

A man is wanted to-day in the pulpit who has clean hands, a pure heart, thoughts with wings and words of fire, to stand in the gap against the evils of our times. Every preacher should live the truth, speak the truth and be a holy terror to the devil and evil doer. He should not court the favor nor have the tear of people. He should combine the courage of a lion, the wisdom of the serpent and the harmlessness of the dove. He should always be a champion of the truth and realize that to champion it successfully he must oppose the wrong.

A man is wanted in the newspaper office to throw himself in the breach and stand against the enemies of our church, home, school and state.

The most mighty force of this country of free speech is the printing press. It is as no other institution the maker and owner of the destiny of our people. The press has done great good but the country has been sown down knee deep with vicious and harmful literature.

Give us an editor who will admit to the columns of his sheet the good only.

Give us an editor who will speak out against lawlessness of all kinds and suggest needed reforms, and give us a plan. Give us an editor who will not be muzzled by blood money or the threat of the braggadocias.

A man is wanted in politics to stand in the gap against all sorts of political corruption and wrong. A man who is not on the bargain counter and not for sale; a man who will not sacrifice public welfare for private friendship or selfish interest; a man who is not a political partisan but statesman like. Give us men in office from the town marshal to the executive who will enforce law and who refuses to be intimidated. Every law, fellow citizens, ought to be enforced. If it's a bad one enforce it and repeal it, but enforce it and uphold the dignity of the law, the bulwark of our liberty and supremacy as a nation. Every law-breaker should be dealt with alike, whether he be a member of the church or not, whether a saloon keeper, merchant, blacksmith, or farmer. We ought to see to it that every man respects law and is orderly. Also that only the best in men is developed, and so legislate and execute that it would be as easy to do right and as hard to do wrong as possible. And what can I say more, Mr. Editor, for time would fail me to mention the man needed in the commercial and industrial world who will not take advantage of the overboarded and undermined multitude who are not capable of taking care of themselves. Serious trouble is ahead of us because of the unfair distribution of profits in this our land.

And also of the man behind the plow, at the forge, casting accounts at the bank and others who touch society to bless or curse. A man! look at him walking in the sublime heights of conscious rectitude. The soldier with an empty sleeve, the boy with ambition working his way through college, the boy supporting some little fatherless brothers and sisters with his anxious but proud mother leaning on his noble, strong, manly arms. A man! A man! the biggest thing this side of Heaven's gate and the most needed of all else.

A Chicago Alderman Owes His Election to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. "I can heartily, conscientiously recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for affections of the throat and lungs," says Hon. John Shenick, 229 So. Peoria St., Chicago. "Two years ago during a political campaign, I caught cold after being overheated, which irritated my throat and I was finally compelled to stop, as I could not speak aloud. In my extremity, a friend advised me to use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I took two doses that afternoon and could not believe my senses when I found the next morning the inflammation had largely subsided. I took several doses that day, kept right on talking through the campaign, and I thank this medicine that I won my seat in the Council." This remedy is for sale by Short & Haynes.

ARTIFICIAL LIFE.

San Francisco March 23.—Prof. Jacques Loeb has discovered in producing artificial life by fertilizing the eggs of the sea urchin that they were best fertilized by the use of acetic acid or vinegar or formic acid, followed by common salt.

Large numbers of sea urchin larvae, normal and healthy, can be produced from eggs by purely chemical and physical means. Many students of heredity have long been looking for means of raising animals in large enough numbers for experiments, which should possess the hereditary characters of one parent only.

Detailed comparisons of such individuals with those which derive their characters from both parents will lead to results in the field of heredity of far-reaching importance.

A Dinner Invitation.

After a hearty meal a dose of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will prevent an attack of indigestion. Kodol is a thorough digestant and a guaranteed cure for indigestion, Dyspepsia, Gas on the Stomach, Sour Risings, Bad Breath and all stomach troubles. N. Watkins, Lebus, Ky., says: "I can testify to the efficacy of Kodol in the cure of Stomach Trouble. I was afflicted with Stomach trouble for fifteen years and have taken six bottles of your Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, which entirely cured me. The six bottles were worth $1.00 to me." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will digest any quantity of all wholesome food you want to eat while your stomach takes a rest—recuperates and grows strong. This wonderful preparation is justly intitled to all of its many remarkable cures. Sold by All Druggists.

LEAS' S FLOUR MILL.

Mr. Cy. Pate, who moved here from Hardinsburg, has leased the West Point flouring mill owned by Chas. Shean and will fit it up with a roller process and all up-to-date machinery. He expects to have the work completed and the mill in running order to handle this season's crop. He will also put up a number of steel elevators of a capacity each of ten thousand bushels. The people here are anxious for the mill to start and will gladly welcome an enterprise that will enhance the value of town property and be such a convenience to the adjacent farming territory.—West Point cor. Elizabethtown News.

If troubled with weak digestion, belching or sour stomach, use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and you will get quick relief. For sale by Short & Haynes.

PANYTER ANNOUNCES.

Justice Thomas H. Paynter, of the Kentucky Court of Appeals, has made formal announcement of his entry into the contest before the democratic joint caucus of the next general assembly for the nomination to succeed J. C. S. Blackburn in the United States Senate.

Judge Paynter further says that he would not allow his candidacy to interfere with the discharge of his duties of his present position.

The probability is there will be no other entries than Paynter and Blackburn.

Startling Mortality.

Statistics show startling mortality, from appendicitis and peritonitis. To prevent and cure these awful diseases, there is just one reliable remedy, Dr. King's New Life Pills. M. Flannery, of 14 Custom House Place, Chicago, says: "They have no equal for Constipation and Biliousness." 25c at Short & Haynes, druggists.

STERETT'S SHELL.

A shell for service in the army and navy recently invented by W. S. Sterett, was given a practical test in this city yesterday and according to statements of those present, was a perfect success in every way.

The shell, we understand, is constructed almost entirely new lines and will be fully exploited.—Hancock Clarion.

Arch deacon M. M. Benton, of the Episcopal church, held two services at the Methodist church Wednesday. His sermon in the evening was much enjoyed by the congregation.

NEWSPAPERS THE BEST.

Addressing the New England Dry Goods Association Nathan C. Fowler, Jr., said: Without depreciating the value of any of the good advertising mediums, for there are many, I wish to state emphatically, and without qualification, that the newspaper is the best and cheapest advertising medium for the retail advertiser, and is the only local medium worthy of being called indispensable. I cannot too forcibly impress upon you the intrinsic value of newspaper advertising space. I base my opinion upon twenty-five years of actual experience in weighing advertising values. I am speaking through the head of experience, and not through the hat of conceit, nor have I any self-interest whatsoever. It makes no difference to me whether you advertise in the newspaper or in any other way, or at all.

The newspaper, from every standpoint, logically, psychologically and practically, is the most natural advertising medium advertising belongs to the newspaper. The reader buys the newspaper for the advertising as well as for the news; and many a woman buys it exclusively for the advertising she expects to find in it.

Something for nothing is not business nor is it good advertising. That which we get for nothing, whether it be a free circular or a free newspaper, receives little consideration. If I were a dry goods merchant I would rather have my advertisement in 1,000 copies of any of the Boston papers paid for by the readers than to have the same advertisement in 10,000 sample copies of the same paper. Because the reader pays for the paper, he proposes to get his money's worth, and he cannot get his money's worth unless he reads that paper, and he reads the advertisements because they are a part of that paper.

Champion Liment for Rheumatism.

Chas. Drake, a mail carrier at Chapinville, Conn., says: "Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the champion of all liniments. The past year I was troubled a great deal with rheumatism in my shoulder. After trying several cures the store keeper here recommended this remedy and it completely cured me." There is no use of anyone suffering from that painful ailment when this liniment can be obtained for a small sum. One application gives prompt relief and its continued use for a short time will produce a permanent cure. For sale by Short & Haynes.

JULES VERNE DEAD.

Amiens, France, March 24.—Jules Verne, the author, died at 3:10 p. m. at the age of seventy-seven years.

A new vein of literature was opened by Verne when he began to publish novels which exaggerated the triumphs of science into what at the time were considered impossibilities. But Verne's predictions were realized beyond his most sanguine hopes. Such books as "Around the World in Eighty Days," "A Trip to the Moon" and "Twenty Leagues Under the Sea" created much amusement, but Verne has lived to see the journey around the globe made in less than 11 if the time he allowed and the submarine boat a reality. Since 1870 volumes, mostly stories of adventurous travel, all of them showing his marvelous knowledge of the latest discoveries in the fields of science.

It is claimed that Verne's "Five Weeks in a Balloon" did much toward the development of dirigible airships.

Thousands have used this reliable remedy with perfect confidence and success for 62 years, because they know just what it contains. The formula consists of Buchu, Hydrangea, Mandrake, Yellow, Dock, Dandelion, Sarsaparilla, Gentian, Senna and Iodide of Potassium. Any doctor or druggist will tell you that this is a scientific and reliable combination of great merit for all diseases having their origin in the Liver, Kidneys or Blood. After years of experience and patient experiment, Dr. Thacher so perfected the process of manufacture, that it never fails to bring the expected relief when taken according to directions.

Thousands of sick ones to whom life has been a burden have written grateful letters of thanks. "I have suffered greatly with indigestion, constipation, also a severe liver trouble, with loss of appetite. Could not rest well at night, in fact, had no energy to work or even walk around. I felt like I was packing a heavy load, and was easily exhausted, until I took Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup, which helped me almost from the first dose. When I had taken one and one-half bottles I felt like a different man, and I knew that it was due entirely to your medicine. I used in all three bottles, and consider myself perfectly cured. At this time my appetite is good, I sleep well, and feel strong and refreshed on arising in the morning." T. L. SPEED.

If you need a medicine write to-day for a Free sample bottle and "Dr. Thacher's Health Book." Give symptoms for advice. We simply ask you to try it at your expense. We know what it will do. At all druggists. 50 cents and $1.00. Thacher Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

Death of J. R. Elliott.

J. R. Elliott, a tailor who came to this city last June from Birmingham, Ala., died last Thursday morning at 4:20 o'clock at his room in the boarding house of H. C. Pate, after a lingering illness of liver trouble. He was in very poor health when he came here but was bedfast only several weeks before his death.

Mr. Elliott was forty-two years of age. His home was at Edenton, N.C., where his only surviving relative, a half-brother, W. O. Elliott, resides. At one time he united with the Baptist church.

Mr. Elliott worked regularly at the trade of tailor, in Oelze's Hall, until the past winter, when his health became worse, and then, until he was confined to his room, he displayed remarkable fortitude in working at odd times, though his condition was that of an invalid.

At the request of his half-brother, sent by telegram, the interment of Mr. Elliott was at the cemetery here, the funeral being held the day following his death.

GREAT-GREAT UNCLE: 35.

Jesse Weatherholt, manager of the City Barber Shop, though only thirty-five years of age, is a great-great uncle. One of his sisters, Mrs. Frank Adams, whose home is in Oklahoma, has a daughter, Mrs. Mattie Lawrence, whose daughter's name is Mrs. Nell Stone. Mrs. Stone's child, which is about two years of age, is Mr. Weatherholt's great-great niece. The child is a great-great niece of Capt. "Shad," Weatherholt, of Tobinsport.

By the Tonic Route.

The pills that acts as a tonic, and not as a drastic purge, are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. They cure Headache, Constipation, Biliousness, etc. Early Risers are small, easy to take and a safe pill. Mack Hamilton, hotel clerk at Valley City, N. D., says: "Two bottles cured me of chronic constipation." Sold by All Druggists.

HAS SONG PUBLISHED.

Mrs. Arthur Ireland, of Skillman, has had no difficulty in finding a publisher for her song entitled "The Shipwreck", which is better success than is met by the first compositions of many writers. Mrs. Ireland is well known in Cloverport, where she received a large part of her education. She was formerly Miss Etta Polk and is a daughter of C. P. Polk, of Skillman.

Mothers, Listen!

READ THIS.

Milledgeville, Ky., Jan. 1, 1903.—Dr. E. W. Hall, St. Louis, Mo., Dear Sir: I have been a great sufferer from kidney disease and was treated by my home physicians with no benefit. Your Texas Wonder has cured me and I am satisfied it saved my life, and I can cheerfully recommend it to ladies suffering with kidney and bladder troubles.

Respectfully,
Mrs. Eliza Frost.

A TEXAS WONDER

One small bottle of the Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery, cures all kidney and bladder troubles, removes gravel, cures diabetes, seminal emissions, weak and lame backs, rheumatism and all irregularities of the kidneys and bladder in both men and women; regulates bladder trouble in children. If not sold by your druggist it will be sent by mail on receipt of $1. One small bottle is two months' treatment and seldom fails to perfect a cure. Dr. E. W. Hall, sole manufacturer, P. O. Box 629, St. Louis, Mo. Send for testimonials. Sold by all druggists.

TOO HEAVY FOR WAGON.

The 54-horse power gasoline engine which was imported here from Louisville by Eugene Haynes and was installed at the Star Roller Mills, last week, was one of the single pieces of machinery that has been shipped here that was too heavy to be placed in a wagon, it being necessary to unload it from a car on the switch at the American Tobacco Company's receiving-shed and move it on rollers to the Star Roller Mills. The engine weighs 18,000 pounds and takes the place of a 35-horse power steam engine. This gasoline engine is the largest in this section of the State.
